Announcements

Call to Worship, Psalm 81:1, 10-16

Sing aloud to God our strength;
shout for joy to the God of Jacob.
I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.

Open your mouth wide and I will fill it.

"But my people did not listen to my voice;

Israel would not submit to me.

So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts,
to follow their own counsels.

O that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways! Then I would quickly subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their foes. Those who hate the LORD would cringe before him, and their doom would last forever.

I would feed you with the finest of the wheat, and with honey from the rock I would satisfy you."

Greeting in Christ's peace

"I chose for us to sing 'Safe in the Arms of Jesus' today because the song was meaningful to Elda and me when our great-granddaughter Emery Grace – born to Hannah and Kyle Preston in June 2018 – lived only two days. Emery was dearly loved; she looked perfect but was born with half a heart (Hypoplastic Left Heart Syndrome). Seven months later Elda joined Emery in heaven and may be rocking her now, both 'Safe in the Arms of Jesus.'" – Dale Jantzen
